POT! TOOT! HERE'S THE WHITE HOPE SPECIAL!

By JACK CONWAY.

Too! Too! Clear the main track boys! Here comes the great Oklahoma White Hope Special, with the Colorado Kid thundering at the front. And the mighty Carl Morris is at the throttle on the Oklahoma Flyer, while "Pussio" Jim Finn is finally capturing the passing on the Colorado apologetic.

The freeman and the engineer are seen to engage in a friendly special race within a twenty-four foot prize ring. And we are well wondering whether the Oklahoma Flyer will pull out in front.

Each has been coming up for some time.

LANGFORD BUSY TRAINING FLYNN

Sam Langford is back home among the old folks here today. Sammy pulled into the city after his last fight, along with his manager, George Woodman.

The Boston "Red Haly" was feeling in tip-top shape after knocking out Tiger Ross the other night. After starting away from the hotel Sam was accompanied by his partner, "Pussio" Finn, to the Amory Club. There the two men went through a series of sparring bouts. "Pussio" is scheduled to meet Joe Jeannette over a New York card on Wednesday night.

Jeannette has been cutting quite a nap in the city during the past few months. He is a former champion and has taken the hearts of the city. He is a former champion and has taken the hearts of the city. He is a former champion and has taken the hearts of the city.

2 UNFINISHED SERIES IN RUSTLER SCHEDULE

By R. W. LARONER.

The series with the Rustler as well as with Brooklyn, will remain incomplete as the two games with win up the Rustler championship of the Cardinals for 1911, and make the totals only for the two clubs do not include.

The St. Louis Cardinals and St. Paul's Phillies are on the outs. There is to be no more meeting between these two clubs this season, the Phillies going to St. Louis for three games last month. The National League championship went, depending on this series, but it will be for blood just the same.

Battles between the Cardinals and Phillies aren't merely ball games. They are real fights. Members of the Philadelphia team have threatened to kick everybody in St. Louis and Mr. Nease's athletes have come back with assertions that Mr. Nease will have to get a costly new team next season unless he wants to use ropes.

The trouble started several weeks ago when the Cardinals refused to play the Phillies at St. Louis. It is remembered that St. Louis was playing at Philadelphia when the Cardinals refused to play the Phillies at St. Louis, and perhaps that had something to do with it.

When the Cardinals were in Philadelphia last week, the two fans became so angry that they fought. The Cardinals fans were armed with sticks and stones, and the Phillies fans were armed with sticks and stones. The fight was so bad that the police had to come in and break it up.

It is believed that the Cardinals will not play the Phillies at St. Louis this season. The Cardinals fans are so angry that they will not let the Phillies play at St. Louis. The Cardinals fans are so angry that they will not let the Phillies play at St. Louis.

"But wasn't this particular calling (the particular dangers)?" McKinnon casually inquired.

"And phew! phew!"
 "Who, people you spring from?"
 "I don't know, Mr. McKenna," said Mrs.
 McKenna. "It come from the Anty Drudge—It's just the best thing that ever happened for you. Just throw the washboiler away or make an ash can of it, and wash with this cake of Fels-Naptha soap I've brought you. 'Use it in cold or lukewarm water, as easy directions on inside of wrapper tell you, and you'll never want a washboiler about the place again."

1 and 2 pound cans. Never in bulk.

Part of the Game

"That's part of the game! There are men out there who'd go so far as to call me a lawbreaker if I that's what I'd like to know when you call them all those lawyers and tipsters and tipplers and bribe-givers who burrow around for underground contracts and then run sprawling to Washington like a bunch of peen sales a luncheon with a machine."

"No, sir, that's my marker, and I'm going to hold it. I'm going to climb onto the shoulders of the world and make it completely white over its dashboard."

"But isn't this man De Brigard getting ahead of you?" ventured McKeon, watching for the effect of that softy exploratory

"I guess I'll be in time for a little of that," answered Gauley, guardedly. There was something primordial in his knowledge that there was something primordial in the massive, slow growth Caribbean King-mackerel.

There was something titanic and poet-

THE braw Scot laddie has come to London town, and here he married a beautiful and talented girl. Not long after the honeymoon the Scotsman paid a flying visit to his native heather to see his old bachelor uncle.

"Can she sew on your buttons an' mak' your gortikin an' your arreegee?"

"Do!" echoed Tammas.

"Yes, do!" repeated his uncle, firmly.

"Can she sew on your buttons an' mak' your gortikin an' your arreegee?"

"Oh, no," she doesn't know how to do these things," said Tammas. "But she is the loveliest voice that you ever heard. He's a grand singer."

"Singer?" cried the uncle scornfully.

"Hoors, laddie! Couldna ye buy a canary cheap in Lunnnon?"

He was a great, great poet—or thought he was. Even at nights he would reread in bed, and his wife was called in to assist.
"Maria, get up," he would cry excitedly, "I've thought of a good work!"
And Mrs. Wordsworth-Tompson-Moore

But at last the patient, long-suffering wife grew tired of the game. A night came when her husband awakened her with more than usual excitement. "Mario, Mario," he cried, "get up quick! I've just thought of a good word!" But Maria barely moved.

"Oh, get up yourself!" she retorted. "I've just thought of a bad word!"

"A little plan to keep things quiet. The less and only thing we don't want is trouble. It's our fight, and once we win there'll be no trouble. We're a nation, damn it, the New Liberal Party, we're a government of our own, and we go back and patch in outside guys. It's when we see fit."

"But what will you do with the Lashin? How about our captain, for instance?"

Kinnon asked.

With a short of contempt for that saturnal ship's master. "Oh, I've got this full a

You are always ready to use Fels-Naptha soap. That is a great advantage.

Say you want to wash a few white things on a hot day. You don't build a hot fire and make the house like an oven to heat water.

With FES-Naptha you just get a bowl of cold water and wash the things.

It's so simple, so easy. No boiling of clothes; no steam, no nauseous odor.

Same way if you want to remove an accidental grease spot from the floor or wash a window marked by sticky fingers. When there's cold water near, Fels-Naptha is always ready.

You'll appreciate this readiness on wash-day. No washboilers and stirring paddles to bother with, no hot fire to keep up, no danger of scalding your hands.

Likewise in washing dishes, Fels-Naptha will cut the grease in cold or lukewarm water, no matter how long they have stood before washing. And there's no heat to crack delicate china or glassware.

Follow directions on the red and green wrapper.

owner of a "real dog." For the snapping, snarling, barking, biting etc., for the pugnacious bulldog, I have no use. But my article made no exceptions. To its writer I am indebted for the very idea of his breed, pedigree, etc. I have never seen all dogs does nuisances and annoyances that has always seemed to me that if a good dog had not been intended for man's friend it would have been sent back to the Creator. Dogs certainly seem put here to be useful to man. I have seen many of them as often as my article indicates—so mad and so vicious. Would you kill all dogs and thus deprive the world of the noblest of its creatures? I have seen a few dogs that your own State "went mad" and shot up a car full of people. I have known some dogs do in my life. I have seen dogs bite and fought and snapped and generally made themselves disagreeable. I have also known dogs do good. I have seen dogs bark and have given timely warning of fire and of burglars, that have brought comfort to many and saved many a life. I have seen, too, I have a full-blooded, salt-haired, English pointer, who never snaps or barks.

 AW! THIS IS EASY BOY! I AM GOING TO TAKE A GOOD WING!
 WE MUST BEELE CONDORS NOW!
 IT OPENS UP A BIG FIELD IN SCIENCE! WE'VE DONE A PROBLEM!

PANEL 7:
 I CAN DO ANYTHING I WANT TO WITH THEM! FLY ON MY BACK!

PANEL 8:
 I WAS FLYING ON MY BACK AND COULDN'T GET BACK BECAUSE MY GRASP WAS FLAT!

PANEL 9:
 MADAME! I CONGRATULATE YOU! YOUR HUSBAND IS HERE! HE WAS NOT AS TOUGH AS YOU THOUGHT HE WAS!
 HIS CONTRIBUTION TO THE SCIENCE OF GRANTING WILL BEING HIM! HONOR NAME AND WEALTH!

PANEL 10:
 OH! HERE HE COMES! AND I HAVE BEEN SITTING HERE BEELE INSTEAD OF PREPARING HIS DINNER! OH! I MUST GET BUSY!

PANEL 11:
 WIM BOO, PA!

SCARF DRAING SNEAK THEIR F
ACTUALLY SILENT, THE CORNED
BEEF AND CABBAGE GOT MY DINNER TABLE. MY HUSBAND
CAME IN JUST AND DISAPPEARED
THROUGH THE KITCHEN DOOR!

WE SHALL ACCOMPANY YOU TO YOUR HOME-
COME WANTS!?

THE CORNED BEEF AND CABBAGE?
I WOULD LOVE A LARGE BUSH AND WHITE
PLATTER, WITH A NICK OUT OF THE END, RIGHT HERE ON THE TABLE!

PROBABLY THE CAT RAN AWAY
WITH IT !

BUT, MY DEAR MA,
A CAT WOULD HAVE TROUBLE TO TAKE THE PLATTER AS WELL.

THEN IT WAS EVIDENTLY SOME HUNGRY
TRAMP!

BUT HERE IN THIS CUPBOARD
IS THE LARGE BLUE AND WHITE
PLATTER WITH A NICK OUT OF THE END! IT
HAD BEEN HEAVILY
WASHED. NO
TRAMP WOULD WOULD HAVE TROUBLE TO REPLACE IT IN THE RACK.

THAT'S MY PLATTER,
SURE ENOUGH.

AH! WOULD YOU
MIND LETTING ME
GLANCE OVER YOUR BUTCHER BILLS FOR THIS WEEK?

MARVELOUS!

FRIDAY - CORNED BEEF!
TUESDAY - CORNED BEEF!
WEDNESDAY - CORNED BEEF!
THURSDAY - CORNED BEEF!
MAY I SEE YOUR HUSBAND A MOMENT?

WHY CERTAINLY,
HE'S OUT IN THE YARD
BEATING CARPIS.

AH, MR. NICHIPERCO, HAD YOU BROKEN ANY OF THE PLATTERS?
THESE WERE FOUND, EXACTLY SHERLOCKO!

DON'T LET HER KNOW! SHE HATES FOR CORNED BEEF AND CABBAGE! SHE EAT IT & DOES A REE!
I THREW IT AWAY TO DAY!

MRS. SECRET
(B. RAPE)
- EH SHERLOCKO?
